

Women in Space: Poster Competition

Judge Sheet

Final Poster

CATEGORY		10-9: Excellent	8-6: Good	5-3: Satisfactory	2-1: Needs Improvement
Content	Accuracy	Information is correct, complete, and detailed.	Information is mostly correct and covers all parts, but one part can be more detailed.	Some parts are included and show lots of details, but some parts are missing.	Basic information is present but not detailed enough.
	Understanding	Use own words to introduce her. Her contributions and efforts are highlighted.	Mostly use own words and shows that I understand the content.	Mostly copy from internet, but the information is categorized.	Copy from internet. The information could be more organized.
Design	Clarity	Clear zones. Layout looks well organized.	Sections are mostly clear. Layout is easy to follow.	Sections are a bit mixed. Layout could be more organized.	Information is shown, but it would benefit from clearer sections.
	Creativity	Have surprising decorations. Poster is interesting and attractive.	Have pretty and meaningful decorations. Poster is attractive.	Simple design with a few relevant images.	Simple design.
Inspiration		Clearly explain why I choose her. Show how her inspires me. Make people “wow”.	Explain why I choose her. Show how she inspires me in some ways.	Briefly explain why I choose her.	Didn't explain why I choose her.

An Roinn Oideachais
Department of Education

Blank sheet

Category		Pupil Name/Code
Content	Accuracy
	Understanding
Design	Clarity
	Creativity
Inspiration
Total

*This sheet is an example standard to judge the presentation and final work. You can show students the standard to help them make better posters. If time available, they can use it for self and peer assessment.